Incidents and Accidents in and About Yale.

The greatest celebration in years will be in Yale next week Wednesday.

The Republican State Convention will be held at Grand Rapids, July 31.

Take your butter to the farmers' friend, Old Brockway, and get that extra 3 cents per pound.

The strawberry shortcake would be called strawberry sandwich if it were not so short of strawberries.

Henry Pearce and Henry Howay have the contract for rebuilding the M. E. church. It will be a fine structure when complete.

Those boys who are in the habit of going in swimming near the bridge on west North street in broad daylight are instructed to quit the practice or the village officers will take the matter in hand.

As a blood-purifier, the most eminent physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful combination of vegetable alteratives ever offered to the public. As a spring and family medicine, it may be freely used by old and young alike.

The Exorson is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ohmer for a quantity of the largest and finest strawberries ever grown in this section. Some of the berries measured a trifle over five inches in circumference, and nearly all of them four inches and over. The quality was equal to the size.

The case of Wilt vs. Eves was tried before Justice Hisey on Tuesday and much interest was taken in the matter which involved the title to a horse sold by Eves to Wilt. The case was closely contested and resulted in a disagreement of the jury after they had been out four hours. The vote stood 4 in favor of Eves and 2 in favor of Wilt.

Haying has commenced. Bourke, of Brockway, has the best store for bargains.

The public schools were closed last Friday for the summer vacation.

Next Wednesday is July 4th. Make preparations to spend that day in Yale. The weather for the past week although warm has been very pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellis are happy over the arrival of a daughter at their home on Saturday last.

Elder Haight will preach in the Free Methodist church next Sunday night. Everybody invited to attend.

Members of the Yale Driving Club should remember the meeting this (Friday) evening at Wallace's shop.

J. W. Long will give a grand ball at his hotel, Moore's Corners on the evening of July 4th. Everybody invited. First-class music and a good time may be expected.

Died at her home north of Yale on Friday, June 22, 1894, Miss Teets. The funeral was held in the M. P. church on Sunday at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. F. Perkins officiating.

WANTED.—Work on a farm by a man who has had long experience at farm work. Speaks either German or English. Call at the Exorson office or address Louis Gerlock, Yale. S-2

Died in Yale on Tuesday, June 26, 1894, Mrs. Joseph Cavanagh, aged 28 years. The funeral was held from the M. E. church to Elmwood cemetery where the remains were laid at rest. Rev. J. F. Harrison officiating.

Geo. Matzen, of Yale, has entered the employ of Messrs. 2 Macks. He has been in the employ of W. H. Palmer, of the foregoing place for the past two years and comes well recommended.—Cass City Enterprise.

If C. F. Michaels does not have a large crowd at his dance on the evening of July 4, it will not be because he is not advertising it thoroughly. There is no doubt but that everybody will be here and a fine time enjoyed by all.

The County Journal, published at Carsonville, Sanilac County, by the Graham Publishing Co., starts on its second year this week with bright prospects of success. We wish that this new paper may enjoy many more years of prosperity.

"It has cured others and will cure you" is true only of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The motto suits the medicine and the medicine the motto. What better assurance could you have that a medicine will cure you, than the fact that it has cured such multitudes of others?

A man who has lived a life of well doing until old age and labored earnestly for the well being of his fellow men as has John Grinnell, Sr., deserves to receive a benefit from it. The citizens of Yale and surrounding country are doing a noble act in assisting the grand old man financially and otherwise. Lara Butler was around this week with a subscription paper and succeeded in raising about twenty dollars. Those of you who have not already given your mite will have a chance by calling on Mr. Butler.

Don't forget the Union Sunday School picnic to be held in Holden's grove on July 4th. Terms will be in readiness about ten o'clock to convey all who want to go, free of charge. The managers promise a day of pleasure and profit to all who are in sympathy with Sunday school work, and most earnestly invite the parents and friends of the children to be present and thus show their interest in the welfare of the little ones entrusted to their care. Come on, come all and bring your lunch basket with you. Will see to it that none will suffer for want of water.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Andrew J. Hicks, of St. Johns, and Miss Minnie J. Pike, of Ionia. The ceremony will take place in Mt. Clemens, at the home of Mr. Hick's mother, Mrs. A. B. Chapin, June 28th, at noon. The groom conducts a printing business in connection with the Clinton Independent, is an accomplished musician and a very genial gentleman. His bride is an attractive young lady who made many friends during a brief residence here last year.—The Clinton Republican. Mr. Hicks was at one time connected with the Exorson as foreman and will be remembered by many of our townspeople.

Madam, your attention, please. Do you expect to dye this season? We mean, will you dye any stockings, carpet rags, cloaks, dresses, feathers, or anything for if you intend to, we are anxious to have you dye with Magic Dyes. They are easy to use and we believe them superior to most other brands. Carpet weavers who have used them say they give more durable colors which don't crock or fade like others. They color cotton, wool, etc., with same package, thus doing better work on mixed goods. Although the packages are larger and color about double the goods, we sell them at 10 cents, same as other brands. Sold by Grant Holden & Bro.

Fire alarms have startled Yale people rather too often lately. About eleven o'clock Monday evening, the sharp call rang out and the firemen were soon on the scene, which was found to be the Commercial hotel. Before they arrived there, however, word came that their assistance was not needed as the fire had been put out. It seems that in a room off the kitchen, used for a laundry, a quantity of easily ignited stuff had been placed and then set on fire by a person or persons unknown. If their plans had not been frustrated, an immense conflagration would have been the result, as the hotel is large and old and there are numerous small frame buildings adjoining, besides the barns directly back. It is hardly possible that any of these buildings could have been saved if the fire had got a start. Wednesday morning about one o'clock came the second call for firemen, and seeing flames arising many thought it was again the hotel, but quick investigation showed it to be the water closet belonging to the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hart, which our readers will remember was set on fire a short time ago but did not burn. Our firemen turned their attention to the barns on either side, which they kept moist, preventing them from burning. Whoever has twice set fire at this place is a most malicious minded person, and if this small work is continued there will sometime be a heavy fire and no one to help put it out, as peaceful citizens do not like being aroused from their sleep to participate in others' jokes.

Come to Yale the 4th. Every arrangement has been made for a grand time.

Bert, son of Albert Jackson, ate some green peas on Wednesday and has since been very sick.

George Weston has commenced the foundation of Andrew DePeel's new house on Mary street.

J. A. Davidson & Co. advertise special prices on carpets, curtains, wall paper and crockery. See adv.

The Yale base ball nine did the Brockway nine up to the tune of 20 to 30 at the latter place last Tuesday.

If you want a good plow or any part of a plow, call on the farmers' friend, Old Brockway. He has just received a full stock.

A. W. Ferguson & Co. have a change of advertisement in this issue which should receive the attention of Exorson readers.

Premature baldness may be prevented and the hair made to grow on heads already bald, by the use of Hall's Vegetable Siccilian Hair Renewer. The gold medal which Bertha Beecher received at her school as first prize in reading, is a handsome breast-pin and an elegant ornament. She may well be proud of it.

Every arrangement for a good time is being made for the picnic in Elmwood Putney's grove, Speaker, on July 4th. A suitable program for the occasion will be carried out by the committee. Everybody invited.

A very pleasant evening was passed by the members and friends of the Order of Eastern Star at the residence of H. E. Beard on Tuesday. The Col. web contest was very interesting and furnished considerable sport for both young and old.

The F. & P. M. R. Y will run a special excursion train to Bay City, July 12th, where a large Orange celebration will be held. The train will leave Yale at 7:55 and arrive at Bay City at 10:30. Returning from Bay City at 6:30. Fare for round trip $1.25.

Fred M. Brand has been in North Branch, Clifford, Marlette and Crosswell during the past two weeks and has done a large business in dress goods and trimmings. He has a very large assortment of fine goods and it will pay you to see his stock.

Mrs. Hulbert, widow, living at Roseburg, lost a bundle containing 1 feather bed, 4 feather pillows, 1 quilt and 2 comforters wrapped in carpet, on the road between Capac and Roseburg on the 5th day of June. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to owner.

Since publishing the report of the death of Gurley Lester in last week's Exorson, we have learned that there is no truth in the rumor. Our informant is a reliable, trust-worthy citizen and gave us the report as he received it. We are pleased the report is not true.

A number of friends passed a sociable evening at the residence of Ezra Freeman last Friday. Among those present were Wm. Mason and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Newkirk and daughter, Mrs. John Frank, Allie and Aggie Russell, Mrs. Gustin, and Lara Butler and wife. Ice cream was served.

There will be a matched game of base ball between the teams of Brockway and Yale at Brockway on Monday, July 2, 1894, for a purse of $25.00 a side. These two teams are very evenly matched and you may look for an interesting and hotly contested game. The playing will commence at 1 o'clock sharp.

Excavating is being done for the foundation of the new M. E. church and the work will be rapidly pushed to completion. The plans contemplate a fine structure, with furnace, a perfect system of ventilation so much needed in all public buildings, and all improvements which go to make a modern church.

Died in Yale on Friday, June 22, 1894, the six weeks' old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Easton. The sorrowing parents desire to thank the many friends and neighbors who assisted during the sickness and after the death of the child, also those who accompanied the funeral procession to the Kenosha cemetery on Saturday.

Several members of the State Revival Band begin tent meetings in the village this week. Great success has attended their efforts in the past and their coming can but prove a great blessing to Yale. Let all avail themselves of this opportunity as the meetings will probably not continue more than ten or twelve days. Song book Evangelist No. 3 will be used in the services.

Mrs. Abner Phillips died at her home in Lynn on Sunday, June 24, 1894, at the age of 19 years 7 months and 24 days. The funeral was held at the South Lynn school house on Tuesday. Rev. Lester Clark officiating. Decedent's maiden name was Lydia May Morgan and was born in the township of Lynn, November 6th, 1874; was married to Abner Phillips on January 22, 1893. She leaves a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn her departure.

C. Cooper & Co. is the name of the new firm in the undertaking business in Yale. Their rooms are in the corner store of the Duffie block where they intend to keep an elegant line of caskets, cases and furnishings and everything necessary for the conducting of a first-class undertaking house. They further say in their announcement that they are in no way connected with any of those combines that have conspired to keep up the prices of such goods to an exorbitant figure. A first-class new hearse will be furnished free and by careful attention to all the details of the business they hope to secure a moderate share of patronage.

MONTAGUE, Mich., Nov. 13, 1893. W. Windecknecht, a wealthy farmer of Muskegon Co., personally appeared before me, this day, and says: That for the past year or so he was afflicted with weakness, trembling, heart failure, extreme nervousness and headache, that he consulted with physicians but received no benefit. He was persuaded by a friend to try a sample bottle of Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer, and he says the trembling and nervous feeling was immediately stopped by its use. Afterwards he used two bottles of the same medicine and says he is entirely cured." Signed, W. WINDECKNECHT.

Sworn to and subscribed before me a Notary Public for Muskegon Co., State of Michigan. JAS. MORRISON. This medicine sold by Grant Holden & Bro.
